- (d) offers received must be evaluated on a competitive basis taking into account unconditional discounts
- (e) acceptable offers above R30 000 (VAT included) are subject to the preference procurement policy, and must be awarded to the bidder with the highest points;
- (f) the accounting officer must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the procurement of goods and services through written or verbal quotations or formal written price quotations is not abused;
- (g) the accounting officer or chief financial officer must on a monthly basis be notified in writing of all written or verbal quotations and formal written price quotations accepted by an official acting in terms of a sub-delegation.

19. COMPETITIVE BIDDING PROCESS

- (1) Goods or services above a transaction value of R200 000 (VAT included) and long term contracts may only be procured through a competitive bidding process, subject to section 11(2) [organs of state] of this policy; and
- (2) No requirement for goods or services above an estimated transaction value of R200 000 (VAT included), may deliberately be split into parts or items of lesser value merely for the sake of procuring the goods or services otherwise than through a competitive bidding process, as per clause 12 (3)
- (3) The municipality may not enter into any contract that will impose financial obligations beyond the three years covered in the annual budget for that financial year, unless the requirements of section 33 of the Municipal Finance Management Act have been fully complied with.
- (4) No contract shall be extended for more than six months from the date of expiry.
- (5) Unbundling Strategies:
 - (a) in order to encourage increased participation and the sustainable growth of the small business sector and cooperatives , the unbundling of larger projects into smaller, more manageable, contracts may be encouraged.
 - (b) unbundling must however be considered in the context of:-
 - (i) economies of scale being lost;
 - (ii) abortive work becoming necessary;
 - (iii) additional demands (not only financial) being placed on the Council resources; and
 - (iv) the risk of later phases not being completed as a result of budget cuts becoming necessary in the future.
 - (v) unbundling, and all of its associated implications, must therefore be carefully considered at the planning stage of any project and the budgets for, and design thereof, should be structured accordingly.
 - (vi) the practice of breaking out (parcelling) projects in order to circumvent the formal bid process is not permitted, as per clause 19(2) of this policy .

- (vii) the Manager Supply Chain Management (in the case of orders below R200 000, or Deviations), may negotiate the final terms and conditions, (including price), on Contracts, where it is possible to appoint more than one Contractor, from a Panel of Vendors who responded to the Request for Quotation. Such negotiations to be with the sole aim of treating all respondents fairly and equally, with the aim to distribute work as evenly and fairly as possible. Such Requests for Quotations to specify Council's intention to do so at advertising stage. Minutes of such negotiations to be kept for record purposes. (This clause is to be read in conjunction with clause 24 of this Policy).
- (viii) the Bid Evaluation Committee (in the case of Bids, or Deviations), may negotiate the final terms and conditions, (including price), on Contracts, where it is possible to appoint more than one Contractor, from a Panel of Vendors who responded to the Request for Bid. Such negotiations to be with the sole aim of treating all respondents fairly and equally, with the aim to distribute work as evenly and fairly as possible Such Requests for bids to specify Council's intention to do so at advertising stage. Minutes of such negotiations to be kept for record purposes. (This clause is to be read in conjunction with clause 24 of this Policy).
- (xi) in order to achieve clause 19(4) (b) (vi) and (vii) above after the normal pre-evaluation (for responsiveness, price and preference points) has been conducted and all the risks have been determined. A list of preferred suppliers or bidders shall be listed in terms of their preference points, where number one will be the highest in terms of points followed by others. If the unbundling targeted two, there, four or more bidders the number as determined on the advert shall be called to negotiate the final offer, where an offer will not be more than 10% (ten percent) from the highest service provider or bidder for the first offer (offer number one) in terms of preference points.
- (x) if one or more of the service providers or bidders cannot agree on the terms, those service providers or bidders would be disqualified and the next service provider or bidder would be approached. If negotiations with the suppliers or bidders cannot be achieved, the quotation or bid shall be re-advertised as it would means the objective set in the advert was not achieved.
